It's time to organize the new bowling season! We are ready to start a new season and hope you are ready to join us again here at Rossmere Lanes. Our season will be starting on Saturday September 10th.

Register online at www.rossmerelanes.ca or drop off at the centre prior to September 6th.

We plan to return to our traditional format of bowlers playing on division-based teams.

- With the return to the traditional format, we still can accommodate options for bowlers and families to participate this year. Pre-bowling and post-bowling is available for bowlers to complete their weeks games when they cannot attend on their usual shift time. Families that would prefer to bowl together is still an option. Please make note of this when registering.
- Registration will continue to have payment options. We will be asking parents to have all fees paid for this season by December 31st. Discount levels will be offered again. The earlier the payment is received, the greater the discount!
- Chocolates will continue this season as the National Fundraising requirement. Each bowler is REQUIRED to sell one case or equivalent support. Grey cup tickets will return this season and will be available the first week of bowling. Bingo bowl, hot dog days and pizza day fundraisers will be scheduled for this season as well.
- All YBC Provincial events are being planned. All events like the Hi Low Doubles, Combo and Bowler of the Year will be held this season.
- YBC National Events (and their provincial qualifiers) will be scheduled on there traditional dates this bowling season.
- Congratulations to the bowlers that attended the National Championships in Oshawa back in July. Robin, Lorena and coach Mike won Gold in the Mixed Senior Team and Bronze in the Senior Girls Doubles events. Alyssa, Vega, Jeriah and Logan won Silver in the Mixed Junior Team. Alyssa, Vega with coach Dean won Bronze in the Junior Girls Doubles. Jeriah, Logan and coach Jamie won Silver in the Junior Boys Doubles. Jaela, Jezia with coach Grant lost in the quarter finals by 6 pins to Quebec, the eventual gold medalist. Well done everyone!
